

D2D Kid Talk Study: How Do Kids Learn Language?

Status: Recruiting

Eligibility Criteria

Sex: Male or Female

Age Group: Up to 18 years old

This study is also accepting healthy volunteers

Inclusion Criteria:

- child must be 5 through 8 years old - parent and child must speak and understand spoken and written (parent) English - English must be the language spoken at home

---

Exclusion Criteria:

- history or symptoms of a developmental or neurological disorder, such as stroke, traumatic brain injury, seizure disorders, cerebral palsy, or autism
•currently receiving speech-language, reading, or special learning services or have received these services in the past - history of hearing loss

Conditions & Interventions

Conditions:

Children's Health

Keywords:

language development

More Information

Description: The purpose of this research is to better understand how children learn language. Child participants will complete problem solving and language-based tasks. Parents will complete two questionnaires about the child and their development. Results of this study will be used to help children with language-learning weaknesses.

Study Contact: Lizbeth Finestack - finestac@umn.edu

Principal Investigator: Lizbeth Finestack

IRB

Number: STUDY00022318

---

Thank you for choosing StudyFinder. Please visit <http://studyfinder.umn.edu> to find a Study which is right for you and contact sfinder@umn.edu if you have questions or need assistance.